- 4) Announcements
YAC scheduled a visit with Fairwinds retirement community where we will give the seniors a tour of the Oro Valley Community Center and play pickleball January 3rd.
- 4) Committee Reports
 - a) Field Day - Jason Kronenfeld checked with the community for possible opportunities for speakers. Chloe Noll will contact the BASIS Oro Valley DJ Club to ensure the speakers work with the DJ club's equipment.
 - b) Senior Relations
 - i. Music and Memory Recap - Carley Noll gave a recap of the implementation of the iPods at the Catalina Springs Memory Care Facility. Bodo Lee and others discussed their specific experiences with the seniors.
 - ii. Loneliness campaign - Marty - Marty Waters informed the YAC of the issue of loneliness in teens and seniors. She encouraged the YAC to contact the Highland HOA so the YAC could reach out to lonely seniors.
 - c) Technology Committee - YAC has a scheduled tech presentation focusing on one-on-one help on January 28th at the Community Center.
 - d) Website - the YAC discussed putting headshots on the website and setting up a new banner.
 - e) Town Liason - Lily Tees gave a summary of the Town Council meeting. She informed us that the Distracted Driving Ordinance passed.
- 6) Tree Lighting Recap
The YAC discussed the success of both the cornhole booth and the Hot Chocolate booth at the Oro Valley Tree Lighting.
- 7) Distracted Driving and PSA Discussion
The YAC described the meeting with the Sauherita YAC and how and if the PSA would address the new Oro Valley Distracted Driving Ordinance. The YAC also discussed setting up presentations about distracted driving at Oro Valley High Schools, contacting the principals at CDO and IRHS, and creating a temporary committee to work on these goals.
- 8) Professionalism Presentation
Chris Cornelison offered tips and advice for professionalism in all formal settings, and gave personal anecdotes of how professionalism has affected his hiring decisions.
- 9) Future Agenda Items
Fairwinds Community Center Tour Recap
- 10) Adjournment
Rebekah Samuel motioned to adjourn the meeting at 8:30 pm.
Carley Noll seconded.
